The authors would like to draw readers' attention to an omission from the above-mentioned article.

We would like to clarify that data analysed in this article were collected from the animals used in one of our previous studies. The following citation should have been added to the Material and Methods and Table 1:

Bell MJ, Saunders N, Wilcox RH, Homer EM, Goodman JR, Craigon J, Garnsworthy PC. 2014. Methane emissions among individual dairy cows during milking quantified by eructation peaks or ratio with carbon dioxide. Journal of Dairy Science, 97 (10):6536–6546. <https://doi.org/10.3168/jds.2013-7889>.

The omission does not alter the scientific content of either article, and the authors apologise for this omission.
